262

No.III/S-9-1-55/E/9169
Dated Jaipur the September14,1955.

STANDING ORDER NO.48

It is hereby ordered that no Police Officer or man or member of the clerical staff in any Police office in this State should say "Hallo" after picking up the receiver of his telephone. A beginning should be made like "S.P.Jaipur Speaking" or " DIG HQ Sahab ki Kothi or Daftar" or "Sharma speaking" etc. No time is than wasted in saying "Hallo" or asking questions like "who are you" etc.

2. This rule should be followed not only by all officers themselves but all their clerks and orderlies, who have anything to do with telephones, should be properly instructed as above.

V.G. KANETKAR
Inspector General of Police,
Rajasthan, JAIPUR.

All Concerned to note please

Copy forwarded to the :-

1. All Deputy Inspectors General of Police including C.I.D.
2. All Superintendents of Police including ACB/CID/IB/PRO.
3. All Commandants, R.A.C. & M.B.C. Battalions.
4. Principal, Police Training School, Kishangarh.
5. Assistant Inspector General, Government Railway Police, Jaipur.
6. Accounts Officer, Police Headquarters, Rajasthan, Jaipur.
7. P.A. to the Inspector General of Police, Rajasthan, Jaipur.
8. Incharge Central Stores, Police Headquarters, Rajasthan, Jaipur.

for information and favour of necessary action.

Bsm
15/9.

For Inspector General of Police,
Rajasthan, JAIPUR